

THE ECONOMIC CHAMBER OF MACEDONIA AND THE FOREIGN INVESTORS COUNCIL ORGANIZED A BIG HUMANITARIAN PICNIC IN THE CITY PARK IN SKOPJE

Today, May 21st, 2017, the World day of cultural diversities, in the City Park in Skopje, the Economic Chamber of Macedonia and the Foreign Investors Council organized a public humanitarian event with authentic culinary specialties from different countries.

After the great success of the last year's edition of the World Picnic, the Economic Chamber of Macedonia and the Foreign Investors Council continued with the idea to promote the culture of the foreign companies- members of the Foreign Investors Council via their traditional food.

Foreign investors coming from Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Croatia, France, Germany, Great Britain, Greece, Italy, Luxemburg, the Netherlands, Slovenia, Switzerland, Turkey and USA, used the possibility to socialize with the citizens and to promote the gastronomy of the countries they are coming from via their most authentic recipes from their national cuisines. The day was enriched with entertainment for the whole family, with a lot of music, fun and animation for kids.

- This event was a great possibility to celebrate the long-term dedicated work of the Foreign Investors Council within the Economic Chamber of Macedonia and a promise for further successful projects, events and happenings that will confirm their social responsibility- said Stefan Peter, president of the Foreign Investors Council. The companies- members of the Foreign Investors Council within the Economic Chamber of Macedonia employ more than 50.000 citizens.

The Macedonian public- the citizens and representatives of the business community that attended the World picnic, apart from the possibility to get familiar with the different tastes of the international cuisines and to enjoy the music of this year's Macedonian representative at the European Song Contest- Jana Burcheska, they also were part of the humanitarian character of the event because the food was served for a symbolic amount of 100 denars, while the collected means will be donated in the public kitchen in the “St. Paul and Peter the Apostles” and to the humanitarian association “El-Hilal”.
